CURRENTS IN EDUCATION:

NAVIGATING CHANGE IN LANGUAGES, CULTURES, AND COMMUNITIES

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE AT EÖTVÖS LORÁND UNIVERSITY (ELTE), BUDAPEST

11-13 JUNE 2025

THE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE PEDAGOGY, EÖTVÖS LORÁND UNIVERSITY (ELTE), AND THE
INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR INTERCULTURAL
EDUCATION (IAIE) INVITE YOU TO SUBMIT PROPOSALS
TO THEIR 2025 CONFERENCE

STRANDS:

1. Intercultural competence and linguistic diversity
2. Language education: teaching methods, differentiated instruction, and individual differences
3. Teacher education for critical thinking, inclusion, and cooperative learning
4. Intersectionality studies: minorities, migrants, inequality, gender
5. Media literacy in education
6. Information and communication technology (ICT) in intercultural education
7. Global issues: sustainability and environmental protection
8. Intercultural education and/at war
9. Intercultural education through literature and the arts

Language learning, multilingualism, translation and intercultural competence are foundational for equitable and inclusive schools and teacher education. Educators must adopt innovative teaching methods to cater to diverse learners, including minorities and disadvantaged students. Media literacy and technology play pivotal roles in navigating the digital landscape, while addressing global issues like sustainability and peace empowers learners to effect positive change. The conference aims to facilitate collaboration among researchers and practitioners, fostering dialogue on these critical topics to advance equitable and inclusive education worldwide. Through collaborative inquiry and knowledge exchange, participants will learn about research results and explore innovative approaches to education that promote social justice, democracy, equity, and belonging for all.
