LET'S BECOME MACHERS

AND BE A PART OF ONE OF
THE BIGGEST FESTIVALS IN EUROPE!

A Macher in yiddish means someone who is really important and gets things done. Someone who is very active and dynamic problem solver.

Being a Macher also means learning, developing skills and meeting a lot of new and inspiring people.

Macher

The Jewish Culture Festival in Kraków is the largest celebration of contemporary Jewish culture not only in Israel but also in the Diaspora.

Although Israel had become our main point of reference as Jewish culture naturally develops there, the Festival presents in just 10 days the diversity and beauty of the Jewish culture from all around the globe.

---

You can become the part of it!

CHEDER - CAFE AND FESTIVAL'S CULTURAL CENTER.

Cheder is the name of the cafe run by the Festival team. Not only can you taste an excellent coffee there but we are also famous for our hummus!

This is the place where cultural events for the local community take place all year round, including events for Krakow's senior citizens.
